HONOLULU, HAWAHAN ISLANDS, JANUARY 28, 1864.

THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser.

THE PRESIDENT'S HYMN.

[The following beautiful Hymn, composed by Rev. Dr. Muhlenburg, of New York, was sung at the National Thanksgiving services in the principal cities of the Union. The music will be found in Harper's Weekly of December 5.1

Give Thanks, all ye People.

Give thanks, all ye people, give thanks to the Lord, Alleluias of freedom, with joyful accord : Let the East and the West, North and South roll along, Sea, mountain, and prairie, one thanksgiving song.

Chorus after each verse. Give thanks, all ye people, give thanks to the Lord, Alleluias of freedom, with joyful accord.

For the sunshine and rainfall, enriching again Our acres in myriads, with treasures of grain; For the Earth still unloading her manifold wealth, For the Skies beaming vigor, the Winds breathing health : Give thanks-

For the Nation's wide table, o'erflowingly spread, Where the many have feasted, and all have been fed, With no bondage their God-given rights to enthrall, But Liberty guarded by Justice for all : Give thanks-

In the realms of the Anvil, the Loom, and the Plow, Whose the mines and the fields, to Him gratefully bow : His the flocks and the herds, sing ye hill-sides and vales ; On His Ocean domains chant His Name with the gales. Give thanks-

Of commerce and traffic, ye princes, behold Your riches from Him Whose the silver and gold. Happier children of Labor, true lords of the soil, Bless the Great Master-Workman, who blesseth your toil. Give thanks-

Brave men of our forces, Life-guard of our coast To your Leader be loyal, Jehovah of Hosts: Glow the Stripes and the Stars aye with victory bright, Reflecting His glory-He crowneth the Right. Give thanks-

Nor shall ye through our borders, ye stricken of heart, Only waffing your dead in the joy have no part: God's solace be yours, and for you there shall flow All that honor and sympathy's gifts can bestow. Give thanks-

In the Domes of Messiah, ye worshiping throngs, Solemn litanies mingle with jubilant songs; The Ruler of Nations beseeching to spare, . And our Empire still keep the Elect of His care. Give thanks-

Our guilt and transgressions remember no more; Peace, Lord ! righteous Peace, of Thy gift we implore And the Banner of Union, restored by Thy Hand, Be the Banuner of Freedom o'er All in the Land. And the Banner of Union, etc. Give thanks-

VARIETY.

Temper is so good a thing that we should never Wars begin when you will, but they do not end when you please. A white face is sometimes disg tised as a black one, but a black soul much oftener as a white one. A goose owned by Daniel Pagner of Buxton, Mo., died on the 19th inst., at the extreme age of fifty-two

The notion that morning dreams come true is interpreted by the state of sleep being then less perfect, trains of thought follow more mearly the course of waking associations, and they are retained by memory.

The Prince of Wales' feathers are supposed to have originated in the assumption a plume of three teathers by Edward the Biack Pance. These feathers were the badge of John, King & Bohemia, slain at the battle of Cressy.

THE TERM LENT .- This word & supposed to derive its origin from a Saxon word beaning "spring." Formerly, as a season for fas Yq, Lent only lasted forty hours-from twelve on Cood Friday to Easter PROSPERITY AND REVERSE. How easy 'tis when destiny proves kind, With full spread sails to run before the wind; But they who 'gainst stiff gales carevring go Must be at once resolved, and skillful, too.

In affairs of war infinite variety doth arise, even from one hour to another; wherefore, we are not to be too much elated by prosperous news, neither dejected by adverse, because some change doth fre quently happen. But this is to be a lesson, that he who hath an opportunity lose it not, because it lasteth but a very little time.

A deliberate gait, gentle manners, and a gracious tone of voice, all of which may be acquired, give a mediocre man an immense advantage over those vastly superior to him. To be boldly tranquil, to speak little, and to digest without effort, are absolutely necessary to grandeur of mind or of presence, or proper development of genius. A religious ceremony at a wedding is in perfect harmony with the present state of feeling; but those who are shocked at the idea of a marriage being performed anywhere but in a church or chapel may be surprised to hear that the celebration of marriages in churches first took place about 1200, A. D., before which the only ceremony was that of a man publicly leading his bride home to his own house.

INTEMPERANCE .- A drunkard is the annoyance of modesty, the trouble of civility, the spoiler of wealth, the destruction of reason. He is the thief of his own substance, the beggar's companion, the constable's trouble. He is his wife's woe, his children's sorrow, bis neighbor's scoff, his own shame. He is a spirit of unrest, a thing below a beast, and a monster of a Cooling off .- Never eit or lie down in a current of air, or remove any of the clothing after ceasing from active exercise. Instead of lightening the dress, it should be increased under these circumstances, by throwing on a cloak, cape, or shawl, even in summer. Attention to this simple rule would save many lives annually, for the most dangerous and fatal forms of disease are caused by cooling off too rapidly.

A PUZZLE .- " From six you take nine, and from nine take ten, then from forty take fifty, and six will remain." The solution is as follows:

How HEALTH BRIGHTENS THINGS .- Nature has so knit the mind and body together, that they act and re-act upon each other. Who has not felt that the state of health gives a coloring to everything that happens to him?—One man, whose health is de-pressed, sees his own fireside, that used to burn so cheerily, only colored with gloom and sadness. Another, of a bright and joyous mind, in the full vigor of health, will go forth, and the very desert to that man's eye will rejoice, and the very wilderness to his view will blossom as the nose, and the saddest strains in Nature will sound to him the most joyous and brilliant. A sufferer goes out and looks on Nature, and its roses all become thorns, its myrtals all look like briars, and the sweetest minstreley of the grove and forest sounds to him like a wild wailing minor running through all the sounds of Nature.
